Dear

Thank you for recently taking the time to speak with us and for providing a portion of your financial information in order to start your three-month trial period for your mortgage loan modification. We want to help you stay in your home, and under the Federal Government's Home Affordable Modification Program, we may be able to provide a more affordable mortgage payment.

For a three-month trial period, instead of making your existing mortgage payment, you will now make the new trial period mortgage payment of $595.20. Your next step in this process is to make the first month's trial period mortgage payment of $595.20 today.

In the next few days, you will receive a package with additional details and documents that you need to return to us so we can complete the three-month trial modification process and determine your eligibility for the permanent modification of your loan. There are no fees associated with this program. If we determine that you are not eligible for a permanent modification under the Home Affordable Modification Program, we will contact you to review other options.

Get started by making your first trial period mortgage payment of $595.20 today. It's as easy as calling us at 1.800.669.6650 or mailing your payment in the enclosed envelope. If you have already made your first payment, please disregard this letter. You will receive a package from us soon with details regarding your next steps in completing the trial modification process.

Sincerely,
